

APRIL 10, 2024

URGENT: Low-lying areas of Panola County face potential historic flooding. Prepare accordingly and be aware of your surroundings as events may quickly change. Keep medication, a change of clothing or other essentials, nearby.

Areas of specific concern include:

All areas along the Sabine River and its tributaries north of Logansport;

Those living along Martin Creek and its tributaries in the Tatum area;

County Road 224 along Irons Bayou;

County Road 210 along Irons Bayou;

US Hwy. 59 N. along Irons Bayou;

The area south of County Road 2151 and North of St. Hwy. 149;

County Road 307 along Jackson Creek;

County Roads 3171 and 3172;

Private Roads 848 and 8481 and County Road 448;

Low-lying areas on County Roads 127 and 129 along Brushy Creek;

All residences adjoining Dixie Lake and County Roads 403 and 4034.